VideoCounter.com (<http://www.VideoCounter.com>) is an online application which automatically distributes video files to various video-sharing communities and social networking sites, mainly in Europe at the moment, and compiles statistics. This frees the user up from the time-consuming process of uploading and increases the chances of more online contact, due to its increased coverage. VideoCounter.com is operated by Webeffekt AG, Dinslaken, Germany. Webeffekt AG was founded in 1997 and specialises in international online marketing and applications development, including SEO, SEM, VSEO and many more, with corresponding success measurement.
